

PRESENTATION SKILLS /PUBLIC SPEAKING SKILLS

Who should attend?

Anyone who needs to give a keynote, get their message across, pitch an idea, “sell” to an audience, sound more confident, motivate and inspire.

Training components

- Knowing your key messages
- Learning how to inspire change and buy-in
- Using story-telling to relate and persuade
- Best practices for better engagement with your audience
- Creating memorable visuals
- Dealing with questions
- Enhancing your voice and body language to project confidence and make an impact
- Using webinars and (online) media
- Relaxation and focus

At the end of the training you will be able to:

- Become a more engaging speaker
- Make the content of your presentation to the point and memorable
- Motivate, persuade and inspire through greater connection

Cost - Packages available for group or individual training.

Training times and location: Week days 8:30 am to 4:30 pm at my office or client location

One-on-one training can often be reimbursed by your employer, so please do ask me for a quote and recommendation!